CATECHISM 101

THE JOURNEY CONTINUES:
The climax of Lent is the gift of
The Eucharist- The Bread of Life

Consubstantial

The Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC) defines transubstantiation as the change of the whole substance of bread and wine into the substance of the Body and Blood of Christ during the Eucharist, while the outward appearances remain unchanged.

Paul's Eucharistic teaching in 1 Corinthians leaves us in no doubt. "For this is what I received from the Lord and in turn passed on to you: That on the same night as he was betrayed, the Lord Jesus took some bread, and thanked God for it, and broke it, and he said, 'This is my body which is for you; do this as a memorial of me.' In the same way he took the cup after supper and said, 'This cup is a new covenant in my blood. Whenever you drink it, do this as a memorial of me.'... (1 Cor. 11:23-29). (See 1 Cor. 10:16)

See also the Miracle of Lanciano 750 AD and the Eucharistic miracle of Archbishop Jorge Bergoglio, 1996 Buenos Aires. You will be blessed.

POPE FRANCIS PRAYER INTENTIONS

April: For the use of the new technologies

Let us pray that the use of the new technologies will not replace human relationships, will respect the dignity of the person, and will help us face the crises of our times.

HOLY THURSDAY

On Thursday, April 17, the office will be open from 8:30am until 3:00pm.

OFFICE CLOSED

The office will be closed
Friday & Monday, April 18 & 21.

GOSPEL MEDITATIONPalm Sunday (Luke 19:28-40)

“As he rode along, the people were spreading their cloaks on the road.” (Luke 19:36)

Consider how useless it is to spread your clothes on the ground for a donkey to walk on. The clothes get smeared with hooves, and who knows the grimy places where they've been? The animal may leave some unsavory presents on them. They may get stolen by a thief looking to make a buck. The thorns, thistles, rocks and muck of the road will leave stains. The clothes may never be useful again, and you'll probably walk home shivering without your normal covering. Yet this is precisely the gesture the people employ to welcome Jesus and his donkey. Why does this detail matter?

Wastefulness is an essential part of celebration. Consider the unnecessary extravagance of Christmas decorations, confetti and ticker tape parades, baseball players spraying each other with bottles of champagne after a victory, birthday gifts for kids and so on. This wastefulness signals celebration and therefore participation in higher identities (as believers, winners, and parents, to mention the above examples). That's what the wasted cloaks are all about. Those who donate their cloaks participate in Christ's kingship in Jerusalem - and we savor it two thousand years later.

The lesson? Learn how to “waste” money, time, clothes, and food on Christ. We do this at Mass, but in so many other ways, too, like serving the poor, going on retreats, and doing prayerful study. When we practice this holy wastefulness, Jesus will ride into our lives and we'll be more deeply members of his kingdom.
