CATHECHISM 201

HEALING

The textbook definition of Healing states that it is a multi-dimensional process of restoring wholeness, encompassing physical, mental, emotional, and spiritual well-being. It involves tissue repair or regeneration for physical injuries and the transcendence of suffering or emotional pain. Effective healing requires a holistic approach, including lifestyle, self-care, social support, and often, professional intervention.

Allow me to impose my personal definition of healing in relation to our soul. I say that it is the end result, or conclusion of, or consequence of, or reaction from, or outcome or net effect of having completed a SATISFACTION to a wrong, be it physical, emotional or spiritual, be it tangible or intangible.

Last week we addressed the concept of SATISFACTION. Let us recap: It states according to CCC 1459-1460 that “satisfaction - also known as penance - is the final part of the Sacrament of Reconciliation, where the penitent makes amends for sins”.

Having shared my perspective, I want to encourage each of us during this Lenten season to make a sincere confession and then fully commit to fulfilling the work of reparation, which is essential for the genuine healing we seek, need, and deserve.

Remember that none of this can occur without Jesus, our Divine Physician, who heals both soul and body, and who continues this mission through the Holy Spirit and the Church, specifically in the Sacraments of Healing (Penance and Anointing of the Sick).

Through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault, (mea culpa, mea culpa, mea maxima culpa)

GOSPEL MEDITATION
2nd Sunday of Lent (Matthew 17:1-9)

When I sit down to answer emails or write a Gospel reflection or return a phone call, I sometimes wonder: Does any of this humdrum work matter? Maybe you ask the same thing about your daily labor. Today's Gospel, the Transfiguration, offers a surprising answer.

Jesus leads Peter, James, and John up a mountain. There, "his face shone like the sun face and his clothes become white as light" (Matthew 17:2). That detail regarding his clothes is worth considering.

We know Jesus' body is inseparably united to the divine nature. But his clothing? That's something made by human hands. It's an artifact. And yet it shines with the same uncreated light. What does this detail mean? The early Church noted that Adam and Eve's first act after the Fall was to make clothing. This clothing symbolizes all human labor that supports our dignity. In Jesus' glorified garments, we see not just the redemption of our body, but of human effort to protect and uplift human dignity.

Parents, your family is your work. Baristas, plumbers, nurses, accountants - your labor, your emails, your phone calls, your spreadsheets - can all become radiant when offered to God in love. The question isn't just do I believe in Jesus' glory, but do I believe he can share it with the work of my hands?

Lenten Challenge: Identify the "artifact" you are making to uplift the dignity of others: your job, your home, your relationships. Consciously bring it to the Lord this Sunday at Mass. Offer it to share in His glory. It will begin to shine.

Você deve ser um paroquiano ativo, registrado com no mínimo 6 meses de participação assídua para receber qualquer tipo de carta. Se você é membro de outra paróquia entre em contato para obter assistência.

BAUTISMOS: Los padres son las únicas personas autorizadas para solicitar el Bautizo. Si los padres están separados, se necesita una carta de permiso del padre separado. Inscripción y orientación están disponibles en la oficina de la iglesia con 2 meses de anticipación. Se requiere una copia del acta de nacimiento del niño y $50.00 para la inscripción. La preparación para padres y padrinos es el primer miércoles de cada mes de 6:30 pm a 8:30 pm. La celebración del bautismo es el segundo sábado del mes, a la 11:00 am.

IMPORTANTE: Los padres y padrinos deben ser miembros registrados de la parroquia por al menos 6 meses. Si pertenecen a otra Iglesia, deberán presentar carta de autorización firmada por el párroco.
